Office of Federal Grants

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program:

The CDBG program is available to city and county governments for a variety of projects. Entitlement communities are ineligible. The CDBG program areas and descriptions are listed below:

Community Emergency Relief Funds (CERF): Funds may be used as a means to recover when severe weather or other crisis adversely impacts the health, safety and welfare of a community. To be eligible, communities must have experienced a disaster in the past 18 months as documented by a Declaration from the Governor. Contact Mike Hale.

Community Projects: Funds may be used to address human service needs such as senior centers, crisis centers and facilities that provide services to low and moderate income persons. Funds may also be used to revitalize downtown areas within a designated Renaissance on Main district. Contact Donna Grimes.

Economic Development: Funds may be used to create or retain jobs, and provide for the training and human services that allow for professional advancement of low-income persons. Contact Bob Chandler.

Housing: Funds may be used to provide decent, safe and sanitary housing; expand affordable housing; and revitalize neighborhoods. Contact Donna Grimes.

Public Facilities: Funds may be used for infrastructure needs that primarily develop Kentucky's water and wastewater systems. Contact Jeff Hanna.

Public Services: Funds may be used to provide services in the form of operational cost to support the Recovery Kentucky program. Contact Mark Williams.

Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC):

ARC funds may be used to assist the economic development of Appalachia through a diversity of projects in the areas of public infrastructure (water, sewer, housing and telecommunications), human resource development (education, workforce development, affordable and accessible healthcare), and business development. Contact Peggy Satterly.
